I traveled across the United States by car when I was young. We started from Long Island, New York and went across the northern states to Washington State, down through California, across to Texas, then NE to get home. That was the first time I was in Iowa. We camped in many National Parks, hiked, swam in the ocean, went to Disneyland, saw the Redwoods...it was great! As an adult I spent a week in Alaska and hiked and camped.

Sports I watch/play~ watch Baseball, Track play Softball, Tennis

Where did you attend High School & what activities did you participate in?
Greeley Central High School – band, basketball, track, NHS

Someone I look up to & why~ I look up to my mom because she was a teacher and an incredible mom even though she worked full time. I look up to my son because he is so tall.

Hobbies, Interests & What I do when I'm not teaching... I like to get outside and walk, garden and work at the farm. Inside I like to play piano, cook and bake. I like to travel. Most of all I love to spend time with family and friends.
