

Do not pray for an easy life, pray to be a strong person.

Meet the Teacher: Julia Kay Jacobs—Graduate of Buena Vista University

Family & Relationships : My husband Jerry and I have 3 children: Jenna & her husband Daniel, Kendra and her husband Jacob, and Corey. We have two beautiful granddaughters, Morgan and Chloe and one step granddaughter, Peyton. I have 1 brother and 2 sisters.

It's Your Birthday , It's Your Birthday . . . on July 1, 1960

Places I've Lived: I grew up on a farm between Terril and Estherville. I lived in Crystal Lake, Iowa, where I taught for 4 years before moving to Yetter, Iowa, where I currently live.

Best Movies ~

Remember the Titans
Hoosiers

Favorite Music~

Country

Books I Like~

DIY Books
Chicken Soup Books

Favorite Foods~

Pizza
Barb Blair's Caramels

Sports I watch/play~I do not play any sports, but I love to watch track & field.

Life Events: Getting married, watching my children compete in sports (greatest memories ever) and grow into successful adults, becoming a Grandmother—Surviving the Tornado of May 2015!

YEARBOOK

Where did you attend High School & what activities did you participate in? I went to Terril High School and was active in Track, Band, Basketball, Student Council and NHS.

Someone I look up to & why~Mr. Conway, my high school track coach, he pushed you to be your best and treated you with respect and was a great person.

Hobbies, Interests & What I do when I'm not teaching... I love to bake, sew, do crafts, scrapbooking, make t-shirt quilts, Facebook, Pinterest, home remodeling projects, babysit my granddaughters, work on the computer, and learn how to do new things.