

If you think you can ....you're right.
 If you think you can't... you're right.
 Which way do you want to think?

Meet the Teacher: Brian Lantz, Iowa State University

Family & Relationships I am VERY happily married to Mrs. Kari Lantz, who is a native of Lytton, Iowa where I live 5 mi. south. I have 3 beautiful daughters, Katie (married to John B. Conger), Kelly, (youth director in Cedar Falls, Ia. , Brenna, who just moved to Peoria, Illinois and Micah, who is awesome and a junior at SCC .

Places I've Lived: Grew up at Stanton, Iowa. College towns- Clarinda and Ames Iowa. Have lived in Lytton , Ia. since

Best Movies ~

Star Wars,
Ironman, Chuck

Favorite Music~

Beatles, Rolling
Stones, JCM

Greatest Vacation Spots ~

Iowa State Fair
On a lake

Books I Like~

Bible
Do it yourself

Favorite Foods~

Everything &
Steak, pork

Sports I watch/play~ I like to watch college sports. Iowa State is my teach.... Marched in the marching band at ISU. Played old man basketball until 6 years ago.

Life Events -I was born at an early age. Graduated from H.S. Stanton, Iowa, attended IWCC at Clarinda, Ia., transferred to Iowa State with degree in Ag Ed. Ag teacher since graduation.

YEARBOOK

In High School I was involved in~ band, chorus, Ag- FFA, 4-H, basketball, baseball, track, football, Luther league, - liked to fish, hunt, showed calves and help farm.

Someone I look up to & whys~ My parents and family were influential , especially my dad, Donald. John Schultz -Music, Don Hicks -Coach, Gene Sievers-Ag Teacher, Alan Kahler-ISU

Hobbies & Interests I enjoy teaching Sunday School. I play guitar for the Sunday evening contemporary worship service. I help Micah farrow sows, raised pigs, raise Micah's cows and calf them out. We bale hay and stocks. I raise a garden....Mrs. Lantz harvests the garden, makes awesome salsa, and raise award winning zinnias. I work on my acreage..