

"All my life I thought air was free until I bought a bag of chips!"

Meet the Teacher: Scott Nesbitt—Graduate of Morningside College

Family & Relationships : Married for 25 years to Janelle; Daughter and son-in-law Nick and MaeLaan Magnani and daughter Kaelyn and another baby in July; son and daughter-in-law Brock and Sam Nesbitt and baby coming in April; and Jaden, a junior at SCC.

It's Your Birthday , It's Your Birthday . . . September 8, 1961.

Places I've Lived: Born in Charles City; moved to Pocahontas in fourth grade and graduated high school there; spent four years in Sioux City during College; taught one year at Rolfe; then moved to Lake City.

Best Movies ~

Sixth Sense, Christmas Vacation.

Favorite Music~

Country and Cont. Christian

Books I Like~

Lord of the Flies, and Of Mice and Men.

Favorite Foods~

Fajitas and Shrimp.

Sports I watch/play~ Football and Basketball.

Life Events: started teaching August 1984; married June 23, 1990; became a father May 12, 1992.

YEARBOOK

Pocahontas High School: graduated '80. Played football and basketball; student council and speech my senior year.

Someone I look up to & why~ I admire my parents. They had to work very hard to raise five kids and always supported me in everything I did!

Hobbies, Interests & What I do when I'm not teaching... I have painted interior and exterior houses and businesses for 37 years. I paint full time during the summer and nights and weekends during the school year. I love spending time with my family and friends; also, enjoy bicycling and home improvement projects.